ENERGY RELEASEMENT THERAPY<sup>SM</sup>

If you have been seeking a more peaceful way of life, a better understanding of why you are here, and a complete personal transformation, you have come to the right SPACE.

Deep within yourself are all the answers you will ever need to achieve balance in your life.

In my years of counseling people from all parts of the United States and abroad, I have used many techniques to assist them in better understanding themselves.

Never, in all of these experiences, have I found a technique that reaches the depth of understanding, nor the degree of love, to which Energy Releasement Therapy<sup>SM</sup> does. I am now prepared to assist YOU in taking a closer look inside of yourself for the life transforming answers to your deepest emotional, mental and physical problems. I guarantee you will never be the same.

Energy Releasement Therapy<sup>SM</sup> enables YOU to address your feelings of guilt, fear and anger. YOU have the ability, through this technique, to become self empowered and to remove the blocks in your personal progress. If these negative belief systems are ignored, you may leave the door open for much unnecessary dis-ease and illness. You mirror the conflicts between your inner thoughts and emotions. The confusion created by this state of being can block you in attaining peace, love and joy! You may also be experiencing attachments of a Spiritual nature. These attachments can interfere with you, causing feelings of undue confusion and dysfunction in your every day progress.

These feelings come from experiences that you remember from another time and place -- even experiences you have had in this lifetime, but have been blocking on the conscious level. These "cellular memories" then become integrated into the patterns of habitual behavior, which you feel hopelessly unable to change. That is no longer true!

Another consideration is that of physical and emotional problems caused by "entity possession". These fall into several categories: those that are an aspect of your own feelings; those held within your etheric memory from past lives; those of lost souls needing help in making the transition into the Light or other planes of reality. Our struggle with these outside energies causes confusion within our bodies and minds, which causes difficulties each time we choose to make changes in our lives.

The process of Energy Releasement Therapy<sup>SM</sup> allows you to identify and release those entities and thought forms that hamper your progress. As you achieve balance, you heal yourself.

My experience in handling Spiritual communications with your Higher Self allows you to identify your issues quickly and move through them to a place of peace and harmony. You will become increasingly secure in your ability to transform and heal the issues in your life -- a loving transformation to self-empowerment.

You will feel the healing process begin during the individual session, which will continue for days, weeks, or up to three months. You will have achieved a new sense of balance in your life.

I invite you to take part in an Energy Releasement Therapy<sup>SM</sup> experience change and growth.
